DRUGS AND ALCOHOL POLICYWho is covered by the policy?

This policy ("the policy") applies to all personnel who are engaged in any work at the workplaces of World Power Products (WPP) ("the Company") in South Africa and all visitors to workplaces of the Company. This includes any person employed by the Company, all visitors, contractors and subcontractors of the Company, and their own personnel.

Obligation to comply with the policy

Compliance with the policy is a key obligation and requirement of your employment or engagement with the Company. You should read and familiarise yourself with:

The policy, and

If you are in any way uncertain about the requirements or operation of the policy, please raise any questions with management so that those matters can be clarified.

Aim of the policy

The Company's highest priority is a safe workplace, and the consumption of alcohol and drugs can lead to unsafe working and injury, as well as lack of productivity and efficiency. The policy seeks to ensure that the Company and its employees comply with all legislative requirements in relation to the safety and health of its workforce, and any other legislation concerning the use of drugs and alcohol.

The Company's objective is to prevent employees who are under the influence of drugs or alcohol from undertaking work, and to implement an effective process to identify and manage those whose fitness for work may be compromised by the effects of drugs or alcohol.

ALCOHOL AND DRUGS POLICYPurpose

Being under the influence of alcohol or drugs can seriously impair an individual's judgement and reactions leading to an increased risk of accidents and injuries occurring.

The aim of this policy is to ensure the safety of all employees, workers, and visitors by having clear rules in place regarding use and possession of alcohol and drugs, and to support those who have reported a problem with alcohol or drug dependence.

For the purpose of the policy, alcohol dependence is defined as:

"The habitual drinking of intoxicating liquor by an employee, whereby the employee's ability to perform His /her duties is impaired or his/her attendance at work is interfered with, or he/she endangers the safety of others".

Drug dependence is defined as:

"The habitual taking of drugs by an employee other than drugs prescribed as medication, whereby the employee's ability to perform his/her duties is impaired, or his/her attendance at work is interfered with, or he/she endangers the safety of others".

Principles

- All employees and workers will be treated consistently and fairly in line with this policy.
- The rules on alcohol and drugs will be strictly enforced.
- Those who admit to having a problem with alcohol or drugs shall be fully supported by their line manager.
- Employees with an illness related to alcohol or drugs are encouraged to disclose this at the earliest opportunity to ensure support and help with treatment.
- All matters concerning alcohol and drugs shall be treated as confidential.
- This policy is designed to comply with relevant legislation

Scope

- The Company's alcohol and drugs policy applies to all employees.
- The rules laid out in this policy apply to all employees, workers and contractors.
- Misconduct in relation to alcohol and drugs will be dealt with in relation to the disciplinary policy.
- Poor performance in relation to alcohol and drugs will be dealt with in line with the capability policy.
- Problems with attendance or a long-term alcohol/drugs related illness will be managed in line with the sickness absence policy and the capability policy.

Rules

The Company's policy is that during working hours and at all times whilst on work premises employees must be free from the influence of drugs or alcohol. This will help to ensure the health and safety of employees and others with whom they come into contact, to maintain the efficient and effective operation of the business, and to ensure customers receive the service they require. For those reasons, the following rules will be strictly enforced.

No employee, worker or contractor shall -

- report or try to report for work when unfit* due to alcohol or drugs (whether illegal or not) or to substance abuse;
- be in possession of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace;
- supply others with illegal drugs in the workplace;
- supply others with alcohol in the workplace,
- consume alcohol or illegal drugs or abuse any substance whilst at work.
- Whether an employee is fit for work is a matter for the reasonable opinion of management.
- Illegal drugs include but are not limited to heroin, cannabis/marijuana, cocaine, ecstasy and amphetamines

In addition, employees, workers or contractors must –

- ensure they are aware of the side effects of any prescription drugs;
- advise their line manager or a member of the management team immediately of any side effects of prescription drugs, which may affect work performance or the health and safety of themselves or others. For example, drowsiness.

- Contravention of these rules is gross misconduct and the Company will take disciplinary action for any breach of these rules, which may include summary dismissal. In the case of agency workers or contractors, services may be terminated immediately upon a breach of these rules.
- When there is reasonable belief that an individual is under the influence of alcohol or drugs on reporting for work or during the course of work, (for example if there was a strong smell of alcohol on the person's breath), they must be sent home immediately.
- A search may also be carried out in line with the Company's Staff Search policy.
- In addition, possession of or dealing in illegal drugs on Company premises will, without exception, be reported to the Police.

Help and support

The Company will endeavour to ensure that advice and help are made available to any employee who feels they have a problem with alcohol or drug misuse. In the first instance, individuals will be encouraged to seek help from their General Practitioner.

Under these circumstances and with the employee's consent, a referral will be made to the Occupational Health service. It may occasionally be necessary to request that the employee refrains from work temporarily, or undertakes restricted duties to ensure their own safety and that of others.

The Company may also allow additional time off (normally unpaid) for employees to obtain treatment or attend support groups.

Any employee who seeks the assistance of the Company in finding treatment for a drugs or alcohol problem has the Company's complete assurance of confidentiality.
